

WINTER ART EXHIBITS

There are several art exhibits coming up this season that the art students and teachers would love to have you attend!

The annual Small Works Exhibition will open on February 3rd and run through March 22nd at the Choate Gallery at Pace University in Pleasantville, NY. Please note the gallery is closed on Thursdays and Sundays.

Students, teachers, family members and friends are invited to the public reception on Wednesday, February 8th from 4-8pm.

The student work on exhibit includes painting, drawing, digital art, photography, printmaking and mixed media. Last year 200 students exhibited from dozens of area high schools.

Westchester Land trust annual photography show at The Katonah Library from February 11-25th. The opening reception for this annual show of photographic talent will be held on February 11th from 4-8pm.

Our digital and darkroom photography students will be exhibiting at this exciting show. The theme this year is "There's No Place Like Home" There is a student division and an amateur adult division in this show and the work is all for sale at reasonable prices.

Art Against Abuse annual exhibition at The Hammond Museum opens and closes on Friday, March 2nd. This event begins at 7 pm.

This exhibit includes various speakers on the topic of teen relationships and the mission of The Elizabeth Butler Angel Foundation. Poetry will be read by some students in the 6th grade, and visual art from the high school art students will be showcased.

The Katonah Museum of Art holds its opening reception for the annual Young Artists exhibit Sunday March 4th from 3-5 pm.

Marking its 29th year, the Young Artists exhibition showcases the extraordinary talents of 300 seniors from the Museum's member high schools in Westchester, Putnam, Rockland, Dutchess, and Fairfield counties. The exhibit runs from March 4th until the 11th.

Middle School artwork will be on display at the Ruth Keeler Memorial Library during the month of March.

Look for notification of the opening reception in early March.
